About the Awards

Each year, the Historical Society of Central Florida, Inc. honors community individuals at the John Young History Maker Celebration with an award recognizing their impact on Central Florida. The John Young History Maker Past and Present Awards are given to Central Floridians whose lifetime of achievement has created a lasting positive impression on our community.

The John Young History Maker Future Award winner receives the John Young History Maker scholarship, and is a student who shows promise of positively influencing his or her community through dedication to their school work and organizations that support the wellbeing and future of Central Florida. The number of scholarships available is based on available funding.
